

Injustice makes most of us mad —
White police beating Blacks;
Blacks beating innocent Whites.

Koreans make some Blacks mad.

Some Blacks make Koreans mad.

Some Hispanics detest blacks and whites.

Some Blacks make some Blacks mad.

Some Whites hate Whites and Blacks.

Arsonists of any color make me fume.
The whole unjust system makes most of us mad.

God knows how enraged we are!

He's not too happy Himself. Actually, He warns that He is going to punish the "unjust" — those "acting contrary to right and justice."

. . . that should please you!

Speaking of the unjust, have you:

Lied?
Hated?
Lusted?
Ever stolen?
Been selfish?
Committed adultery?
Had sex out of marriage?
Have you kept the Sabbath holy?
Have you always honored your parents?
Have you put God first in your affections?
Have you blasphemed His name, using it to curse?
Have you made a god to suit yourself; have you been guilty of "idolatry"— making a god in your own image?

Forget others
— you're in big trouble.

Put the blame where it lies.

There are only two sorts of people —
the just, and the unjust.
